

You are loved

- a one-day summit focusing on youth

It's for Christian Science Sunday School students (past and present), parents, teachers, other family members, carers, and friends!

Saturday,
April 13, 2024
9:30am - 3:30pm

(the last Saturday in the Qld Easter school holidays)

Where: Christian Science Society, Redcliffe
61 Ernest Street, Margate Qld

The theme:

You are loved...loving and lovable!

Experience a day that shines a light on Christian Science Sunday School and the good it brings.

Designed for children and young people, and those who care about youth and spiritual education
